New Retailer Offers Sneak Peek of Upcoming Artisan Market

Satori Tea Company Opens Tea Bar in San Pedro Square

Event: San Jose Redevelopment Agency and the City of San Jose will join the Satori Tea Company in a grand opening celebration.

When: Friday, August 20, 2010, 10:30 a.m.

Where: 37 N. San Pedro Street, Downtown San Jose
(San Pedro Square behind Peggy Sue's)

Who: San Jose Councilmember Sam Liccardo
Harry S. Mavrogenes, Executive Director, San Jose Redevelopment Agency
Victoria Boyert, Owner, Satori Tea Company
John McEnery, San Pedro Square Properties

Background: Satori Tea Company, downtown's only exclusive tea bar, showcases an eclectic mix of loose leaf, organic and fair trade teas. The tea bar provides a unique downtown experience for tea enthusiasts by hosting public and private tasting events with art, music and foods from local artisans. The tea bar is open from Monday through Thursday from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Friday through Sunday from 12p.m. to 7 p.m.

The Satori Tea Company is just a few doors down from the site of the upcoming San Pedro Square Market which promises to bring a tasty assortment of gourmet and specialty food retailers to already popular San Pedro Square.

The San Jose Redevelopment Agency facilitated the site location through the Retail Recruitment Program and assisted with the permitting process. Other recent retail projects include Ross Dress for Less in the historic district and The Pasta Market and Panda Express at San Jose MarketCenter. The Redevelopment Agency is also partnering to open the upcoming San Pedro Square Market.
